

Teaching Nr.	3
Title	The Law and Economics of Industrial Policy: Disciplines from competition and trade law
Prof. in charge	Yane Svetiev
Description	The lecture will combine classical teaching with an interactive discussion. Students will be required to read designated materials prior to the lecture, in order to be able to take part in discussions. Target group: students enrolled in Master program in European integration + additional participants (civil servants, judicial assistants/associates). Syllabus: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The economic justification for industrial policy: historical and contemporary perspectives for SAA and CEFTA countries 2. Forms of industrial policy: protection, subsidies, industry associations and their use by the relevant states 3. Limitations on state aid under SAAs and CEFTA; 4. Innovation: role of the state, public monopolies and industry associations 5. Disciplines of free movement law versus economic justifications 6. Competition law and industry associations.
N° of hours	6